DIRECTIONS: Take exit 279 off I-81. Turn west on SR 675. Drive 3.5 miles to STOP sign at VA 42. Turn right, and take next left to continue on SR 675. Remain on SR 675 (there is a left turn at the far side of the one-lane, low water bridge) and drive 3.1 miles to a fork in the road. Stay right, on SR 675. and drive another 3.4 miles to the top of the mountain. Caution, this is a narrow, winding road with poor sight lines. The entrance is on your right.

FACILITIES: There are 9 family-sized campsites and a separate picnic area. These sites each contain a table and grill. Water is available at a hand-pumped spigot. Toilets are vault-style. All sites are first come first served. This is an unattended camparound. This is a Pack-it-in, Pack-it-out area, so you are responsible for bagging and carrying out your own trash. There is no fee.

OPPORTUNITIES: The Wolf Gap Recreation Area lies in a gap of Great North Mountain, exactly on the border between Virginia and West Virginia. Very popular hikes lead south and north from the campground to Tibbet Knob and Big Schloss, both of which offer panoramic views of nearby valleys and mountains.

NEARBY ATTRACTIONS: There are a number of hiking trails leading from Wolf Gap Campground. The Massanutten and Great North Mountain Map (Trails Illustrated #792) or PATC Map F provide information on the hiking trails in this area.
